▼ Summit's 'Smoothie' round occasional table was designed by Alwy Visschedyk. It is made of plantation-grown teak and is suitable for outdoor use. It measures 41 x 71cm diameter, and costs £1,533. For stockists, call 020-7795 3311, or visit www.summitfurniture.com.

▲ Andrée Putman has designed two mosaics for Bisazza: 'Alternance', which is reminiscent of a piano keyboard; and 'Vibration', seen here in noir. 'Vibration' costs £308 a square metre, from Bisazza, 60 Sloane Avenue, SW3 (020-7584 8837; www.bisazza.com).

▲ Poggenpohl's 'Dining Desk' was designed as an exhibit for the Milan Furniture Fair, but has proved so popular that it is now in production. It is a dining table, which parts down the middle to allow space for two trolleys with integrated appliances, including a Japanese-influenced teppan plate, and food preparation areas. It is available in a range of finishes, and can be operated manually or with a remote-controlled electric motor. It comes in 200cm or 250cm lengths, both 100cm wide; seats six to eight people; and costs from £10,000. For stockists, call 0800-298 1098, or visit www.poggenpohl.co.uk ▶
