This 'Broadwalk Seat' from Gaze Burvill can be made to fit most sites, curving in and out to accommodate any garden layout. It is made from sustainable, prime-quality oak, and its curved slats are steam-bent, a traditional technique that bestows strength on the resulting timber. It can be made to order in almost any size, with or without a back and arms; as seen here, measuring approximately 90 x 250 x 76cm, it costs £5,630. Gaze Burvill: 020-74718500; www.gazeburvill.com

This 'Slipper Chair' is part of the new Smoothie Collection by Alwy Visschedyk for Summit Furniture. Made from plantation-grown teak, it measures 76 x 81 x 84cm, and costs £2,193. The seat and back cushions can be covered in your choice of fabric at extra cost. Call 020-7795 3311, or visit www.summitfurniture.com

The decorative 'Three-seat Wirework Bench' by Marston & Langinger is seen here in ash grey, with a seat cushion covered in 'Green Wide Stripe', but is also available in any other colour from the Marstons Premium Paint range. It measures 67 x 186 x 68cm, and costs £1,030. Bench cushions are sold separately and are available in any of the Marston & Langinger range of fabrics, costing £215.
