

ARCHITECTURAL DIGEST

THE INTERNATIONAL DESIGN AUTHORITY

JULY 2011

An Exclusive Tour of the Star's Bel Air Estate

The Private World
of Elizabeth
Taylor

1 Bright upholstery and a sinuous shape lend a playful vibe to Promemoria's Bilou Bilou Kids chair, shown in red and orange (seven colors are available). It stands 27" h. To the trade; promemoria.com, 646-588-4409

2 The distressed-iron frame and cylindrical translucent-glass shades of Formations' Cuomo chandelier mimic a hanging candelabra. It measures 42" dia. x 43" h. To the trade; formationsusa.com, 310-659-3062

3 Designed by Mark Anders for Summit Furniture, the Harbor chaise features nautical-inspired details such as a teak frame and stream-lined steel legs. It measures 82" l. x 28" w. and is available c.o.m. To the trade; summit-furniture.com, 831-375-7811

4 Pink and orange grosgrain-ribbon appliques form a graphic pattern against the linen ground of Jonathan Adler's Positano pillows (also offered in shades of blue). $78 for a 16"-sq. pillow; jonathanadler.com, 800-963-0891

5 New to Montblanc's collection of fine writing instruments is the Meisterstück Porcelain fountain pen, in white and accented with platinum-plated fittings and a rhodium-plated nib. $2,840; montblanc.com, 800-995-4810 →