

SPRING | SUMMER 2014

DESIGN CENTRE GUIDE

The Ultimate A-Z Guide to the World's Premier Design Destination

design centre
LONDON

PACK YOUR SUITCASE and join SANDERSON on a voyage through the Caribbean and South America. From exotic flora and fauna, lush foliage and botanical etchings, it promises to be an exploration of wonder and discovery.

AHOY THERE CAPTAIN!

SAMUEL & SONS PASSEMENTERIE's aptly titled 'Harbour' collection is totally ship shape. The smart 'Crown Knot Frog' was inspired by nautical regalia.

DESIGN CENTRE EAST is blossoming with new showrooms opening up alongside creative design studios. Th2 Designs is a good example employing a little alchemy of their own to create a light-filled working space on the second floor.

GOOD NEWS FOR STYLESEEKERS. Bruno Triplet textiles have arrived in the SAHCO showroom. Focusing on textures and colours they reflect the flair and imagination of the designer.

CLIVE CHRISTIAN

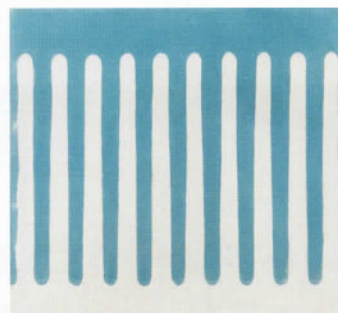

has opened its door to reveal an entirely new concept; the Show Home apartment. Bespoke panelling, fitted and freestanding furniture combined with black walnut and silver leaf have transformed into a stunning, yet effortlessly glamorous space.

IT IS EASY TO SEE why SUMMIT FURNITURE and Linley, the eponymous British design house, are such a good match. With a commitment to great craftsmanship, they have come together with a new range of outdoor furniture, Linley for Summit. These beauties are destined for the most desirable residences and superyachts.

Watch this space for a new showroom from CHRISTOPHER GUY. Seductive, elegant and refined are just a few words that sum up his design aesthetic and expansive collection of utterly fabulous furnishings.

MANUEL CANOVAS at COLEFAX AND FOWLER is instantly recognizable for its vibrant palette. Inspired by the spirit associated with 18th century France but re-interpreted to contemporary taste, the latest collection is no exception featuring vivid cultural influences and unusual colour harmonies.

ANN SACKS has gone global partnering with acclaimed interior designer Martyn Lawrence Bullard. Three captivating tile collections honour tradition, whilst appealing to today's sense of individualism and adventure.