The 'Calypso' chair from Indian Ocean has been designed using a blend of solid teak and all-weather fibres. It's available in two options, both of which offer an inviting curved backrest. All in all, this furniture offers the perfect practical seating solution for any outdoor space. Ring 020 8675 4808, or visit indian-ocean.co.uk.

The Heveningham Collection is the ultimate in stylish, classic and timeless design, commissioned by leading interior and garden designers, architects and private individuals for some of the world's most beautiful gardens and terraces. Seen here are its cushions in navy, a new colourway. Ring 01424 838483, or visit heveningham.co.uk.

Kettal's 'Giro' collection, designed by Vincent van Duysen, marries the Spanish company's expertise in technology with traditional craftsmanship. In this case, Van Duysen was inspired by the classic Orkney chair, but he's updated it, substituting the rope used in the original with recycled polypropylene. Visit kettal.com.

David Harber's 'Sentinel' sculpture consists of two elegantly poised halves in an unlikely balance. It explores how, after distancing, bodies can co-exist in close proximity without actually touching. The marine-grade polished steel creates a kaleidoscope of reflections on its mirrored surface. Ring 01235 859300, or visit davidharber.co.uk.

Summit Furniture designs teak pieces whose quality is unmistakable. The company is dedicated to sourcing sustainable wood and deploying the finest craftsmanship to create beautiful furniture for yachts, hotels, private residences, estates, villas and private clubs. Seen here is its 'Arc' dining table. Ring 020 7795 3311, or visit summitfurniture.com ■
